R. RANDOLPH BRUCE,
Lieutenant-Governor.

CANADA :

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

GEORGE THE FIFTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, KING, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India.

To all to whom these presents shall come—GREETING.

A PROCLAMATION.

WM. D. CARTER, Deputy Attorney-General. { W HEREAS at a Convention held in San Francisco in July, 1923, of the World Federation of the Education Association, which aims to promote good will and world peace through education and the work of the schools, a resolution was passed urging that May 18th be set aside in all countries as an International Good Will Day.

WHEREAS the resolution has been endorsed by the Parent-Teacher and the Teachers' Federations as well as by other public bodies in this Province:

AND WHEREAS it is desirable that the schools of the Province assist in every way possible in advancing the aims of the World Federation, We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Executive Council of our said Province of British Columbia, to proclaim Wednesday, the eighteenth day of May, A.D. 1927, as International Good Will Day in British Columbia:

NOW KNOW YE that We do, for that end, publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby appoint Wednesday, the eighteenth day of May, A.D. 1927, to be observed throughout the Province of British Columbia as "International Good Will Day," when teachers shall hold exercises aiming to make their schools an influence in the movement to promote good will among the nations and to advance the cause of peace throughout the world.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent, and the Great Seal of Our said Province to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS, His Honour ROBERT RANDOLPH BRUCE, Lieutenant-Governor of Our said Province of British Columbia, this thirteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven, and in the eighteenth year of Our Reign.

J. L. WHITE,
Deputy Provincial Secretary.
